To the most wonderful, beautiful, glamorous, charming, adorable, cute, uh ~ I ran out of adjectives but I still love you with all my heart, body and soul. You know that in my opinion we were made for each other to have and to hold until death do us part, or something like that. While I am in the Army I will write whenever I get a chance and I know that you will do the same.

after I get out, who knows! we may even still be speaking to each other (ha-ha-). However, in the future, please try to refrain from flitting back when a boy flirts with you please. You know I am very jealous and might do something drastic (like drowning myself in ~~alcohol~~ alcohol) which we both would ~~both~~ regret. But to get back on a lighter subject, I was was.

Before I say something in this thing that I shouldn't I will close this short novel by saying in plain and simple English (so that your friends who haven't taken an advanced course in S. N. can read it).

I love You!!!!

THEME

What does Norman High School mean to you? Is it simply a building full of classrooms, crowded lockers, and busy corridors? Does it mean books and lessons? Or does it mean proms, basketball and football games, and all the extra-curricular activities of a school? To the TRAIL staff, Norman High School means all these things and many more. It represents many of the best moments we have ever experienced—or ever will experience.

This year, 1963, has given every person in Norman High countless memories to be relived in years to come. You who are sophomores and juniors will return for many more wonderful moments, but the time is growing precious for our seniors, for this is the last year they will tread these halls—the home of the Tigers.

Remember the fun we had at the Howdy Hop, the coronations, "Now or Never Week," the prom, and all the other parties? And we cannot forget how the untamable Tiger spirit of every student was exemplified in all our sports events, especially as we cheered our basketball team to the State Championship.

But most important, we realize how those moments in the classroom have helped us to grow academically. Perhaps you remember in particular the thrill of delving back into the pages of history, the beauty of a certain poem, or the satisfaction gained from a successful scientific experiment. These are the moments which form a sound basis for our education.

Though it is impossible to record each memory of every student, we the 1963 TRAIL staff, have strived to bring to you in the following pages the highlights of this school year. And now we wish to present to you . . . A Trail of Memories.

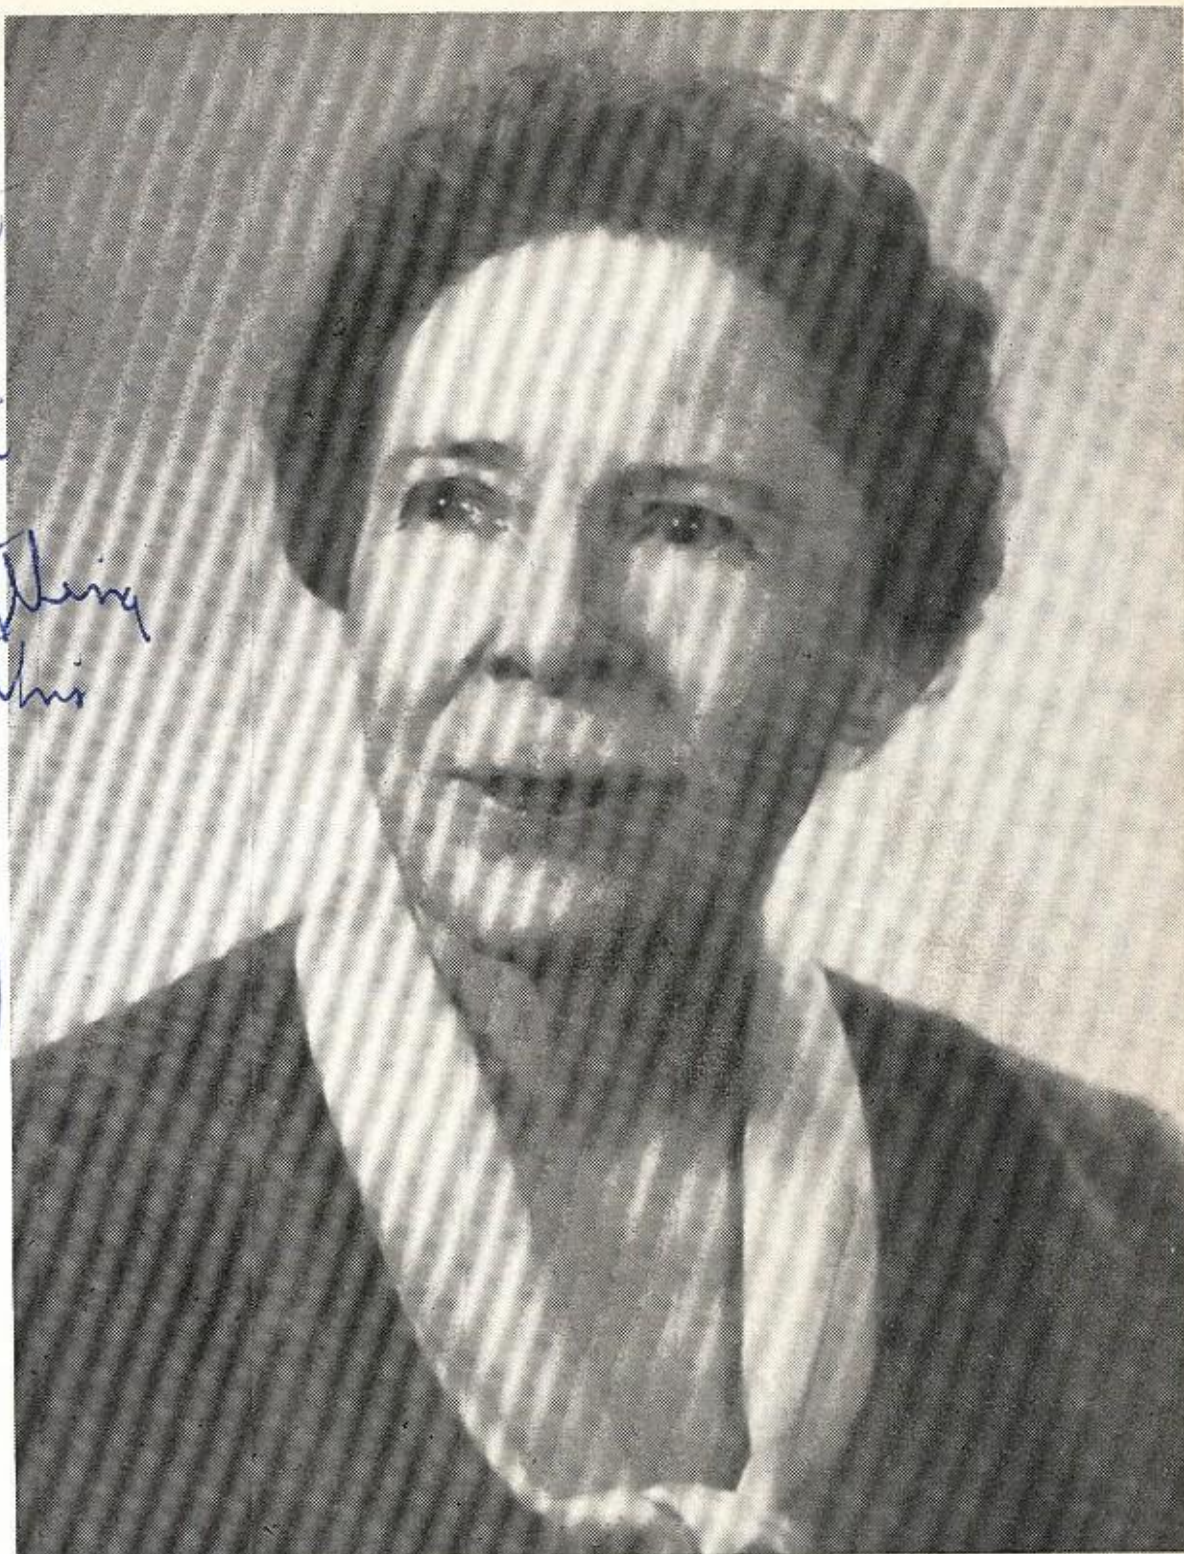

RONALD MINNIX, Editor

Hi Susy!

It's been fun working with you in school and on the "Music Man." I hope you have fun next year, and maybe I'll see you. Best of everything and have a scream this summer.

MISS NADINE RUNYAN

DEDICATION

In all walks of life—in many experiences there are always some people who make deep impressions. One of the most memorable is a very special teacher at Norman High School, a person who has an unmatched dedication and zeal for teaching.

She has spent many extra hours helping her students—preparing them for scholastic contests. Many classes have benefited from her sponsorship, and many groups have flourished under her leadership.

She has inspired and fascinated us in the classroom and endeared herself to every student because of her wit and charm. She has almost become a legend because of her unusual ability to make the pages of a text come alive for us.

We are proud to pay tribute to her by dedicating this 1963 TRAIL to Norman High's own favorite "Tootsie Bell" . . . Miss Nadine Runyan.

Thoughtfulness, energy, kindness, and devotion can almost completely describe the faculty at Norman High School. A teacher's work is never done for there are always tests to prepare, papers to grade, or activities to sponsor.

Teachers are the backbone of the United States because they mold the minds of the young Americans who are to become the leaders of this great nation. Seldom do we appreciate our wonderful faculty here at Norman High School.

Trail Of Memories

"... and the 'sisty-uglers' are off to the ball." The six graces, who are our cheerleaders, clown around at the Ardmore pep assembly.

"They say a picture is worth a thousand words. Here is the picture, so make up your own thousand words." Subjects for this indescribable masterpiece are Tim Payne, David Overstreet, Wicky Burrow, Jimmy Stewart, and Butch Milan.

This year Norman High School reached high goals and made many wonderful memories for every student. Whether you were just beginning your years at Norman High, looking back over one year and forward to the next, or making your last journey through the home of the Tigers; this section will recall for you that wonderful year 1962-63.

The first all school party, the Howdy Hop, left all concerned with a new feeling of compatibility. The Speech II play, "The Man Who Came to Dinner," was deemed a success by all who saw it. The Tiger Twistin' Twenties Party and the Junior Surprise Party were fun for everyone. The Holidays were celebrated by assemblies, a dress-up day, and an exceptional Christmas Dance. Semester finals came while everyone wondered in amazement how the first semester had gone so fast. The All-Sports Queen and All-School Queen coronations were the most beautiful ever. "The Music Man," the all school musical, was expertly done as was the Senior Class Play. "Now-or-Never" Week was only one of many Student Council sponsored activities during the year. It gave all girls a chance to legally chase boys. As always, many deserving students were chosen for Who's Who every six weeks.

"We are the Tigers and we are the best!" The pep club shows some of Norman's Untamable Tiger Spirit at a pep assembly.

The Untamable Tiger Spirit reached its greatest height this year as crowds at all sporting events flourished. Our pep club, the Gingersnaps, was bigger and better than ever. They were led by extraordinary cheerleaders and officers. Their pep assemblies added extra zest to the week. The "N" Club also enjoyed a bigger and better year. All our Tiger Teams brought honor to NHS throughout their many victories and good sportsmanship. The football team had a very successful season with nine outstanding victories. Basketball and wrestling also gave more than their share of glory to Norman High as did the track, baseball and swimming teams.

The fabulous prom, presented to the Seniors by the hardworking Junior Class, was the beginning of the end of a wonderful year. Graduation was the end. As the Seniors left the halls of Norman High School for the final time, they left behind them a never-to-be-forgotten Trail of Memories.

Enrollment marked the first step into NHS for the anxious Sophomores, the middle-of-the-road for the Juniors, and the last lap for the soon-to-be-leaving Seniors. Teachers and enrolling students are Mrs. Smith, Barbara Morgan, Mr. Young, Kathy Kuhlman, Judy Anderson, Carol Donnell, and Carol Chipman.

"Oh Susan, I really don't think you will catch any fish in there." Sandra Busch wisely remarks to Susan Early as Jacque Wallace and Linda Stangle work diligently in the background.

"... then Mr. Griffin yelled at me just because I didn't know the excellerator from the brake!" wails Susan Hallam while Susie Ivy, Gay Clark, and Karen Bramlett listen to her problems.

"Twenty-two skidoo to you, too, Boo Boo." Cheryl Craig and Basil Hurry were just two of the many who had a great time at the Tiger's Twistin' Twenties Party.

"What a break! Here I stand surrounded by all these beautiful dames, and I end up with the runt." Terry Craig and Dean Veal wait for their cue in the coronation. They are surrounded by Lynda Todd, Bobbi Jones, Karol Veal, and Judy Anderson.

"Frank, if you don't nominate me the next time, we're through." All in fun and lots of fun, the coronation was a complete success.

Fun and Games

"You guys, let's just give up and buy one of those aluminum jobs." The "N" Club met with many obstacles, but the finished product was a beautiful Christmas tree for N.H.S.

"I sure wish I could have a mummy like that!" Sandy Seals gives Marty Nelson the "evil eye" during a scene from "The Man Who Came to Dinner."

"They came, they saw, Cheryl conquered!" Jumping for joy, Cheryl Todd and some of her attendants congratulate each other on the All-Sports Queen election.

at Norman High

"Relax, Guyanne, we can put our jeans back on in half an hour." Carol McDade and Guyanne Calame pose for the Trail Photographer before the coronation.

"Mental maturity tests seem to be getting harder every year." Some of the Junior Class brains concentrate on an intellectual game of Bingo.

"Look, Santa, no cavities!" Mr. Reynolds in a Santa Claus suit and Rudolph in a Laura Hallam suit plan their sleigh ride at the Junior Surprise Party.

"They just don't make those knit dresses like they used to!" Randy Glasscock and Ken Foss make the best of a bad situation.

Caught in the act is Tommy Joe Gibson as he attacks Patty Ragan during lunch.

"Oh, isn't that just the bee's knees!" The alternates and Tigers excitedly examine their gifts from the "N" Club.

"Is it a songbird in a gilded cage?" No, it's Eric Feaver trying to escape from Miss McSpadden's room.

"Doesn't Sara know that Ban takes the worry out of being close?" Cindy Smith, Cheryl Todd, Lynn Patterson, and Bobbi Jones laugh with (?) Sara Clifton.

"Go, Captain Ritz, or is it Cowboy Bob?" Bob Ritz receives congratulations from Coach Corrotto upon receiving his letter.

Memories Are Made Of This

"Liz, there comes a time in everyone's life when that greasy kid stuff has got to go!" Liz Riddle and Percy Granger share a scene from "The Music Man."

"Will the real 'Rocky the Flying Squirrel' please stand up." Jerry and Larry Buxton, Russ Dunn, Mike Kimbrell, Bill Stewart, Forest Barker, and Wes Devero are shown here in a comical pose.

"Me, myself, I love me so . . ." Juniors Gary Williams, Tom Wright, Ronnie Morris, and Earl Butts pose for a cheese-cake shot. They are being watched by Vicky Pence and Sara Culp.

"Miss Sugden will never know." Max Murrell, Bobby Milburn, and Ronnie Reese tutor (?) each other on their math home work.

The cheers of the Gingersnaps and the pep songs and marches of the Band add much to the already exciting football game.

"Ah, cheer up, Ron," says Mr. Taylor, TRAIL sponsor. "With luck, maybe the TRAIL won't really look like we think it will."

"My, my, what people are demanding these days!" sighs Ann Finney while Richard Booker sorts TRAIL "fan" mail.

"I'll never twist again like I did last summer, but I guess square-dancing always has been for me," thinks Cherry Kay Griffith.

Here it is! Is that what you were waiting for?
Is it what you hoped it would be?

We the 1963 TRAIL STAFF sincerely hope that this year's yearbook is everything and "more" than just what you thought it would be. We have worked hard in trying to pick what we thought you would like to remember and have tried even harder to put your memories in a "memory" book that you would be proud of.

Here it is; it's yours. Be proud of it and look back in future years and enjoy this edition "from TRAIL to you!"

"Would you like for me to spill these marbles all over the library floor," asks Percy Granger to Liz Riddle in the production "The Music Man."

SCIENCE CLUB

The Norman High School Science Club enjoyed an active and fun-filled year. Sponsored by Mr. Morris, the club heard lectures by various Oklahoma University professors.

Mr. Mackey explains the FFA emblem to the boys.

The primary aim of the FFA is the development of agricultural leadership, cooperation, and citizenship. The Norman chapter of FFA is under the leadership of Mr. H. W. Mackey. They started off the year by electing an FFA queen, Linda Hames, and officers. They gave an assembly during the year, explaining to the whole student body the meaning of the FFA emblem.

Right: Sandy Seals, Micki Bohn, Alvin Turner, Sherre McConnell, Nancy Herrick, Susan Collins, Mrs. Childs, and Susan Wright "concentrate?" on recent happenings to put in the Tiger Tales.

Tales of Norman High

Mrs. Nellie Childs, eight editors, two business managers, and thirteen reporters formed the staff of our Norman High School Tiger Tales. Included in the twelve bi-monthly issues were special editions for Christmas and Senior Week. Being on the newspaper staff entails a great amount of demanding work which requires talent and training. There is much to be done before a paper can be put out. News must be gathered, stories written, and headlines planned. All this must be done in a clear, concise way that will get the point of the article across to the readers. This year's staff has worked hard to put out truly good papers.

Alvin Turner, Micki Bohn, and Sandy Seals try the door-to-door method of selling newspapers.

Susan Wright, Sherre McConnell, Nancy Herrick, Liz Riddle, and Lindy Buck plan for the next issue of the Tiger Tales.

Spanish Club officers for this year were Wesley Devero, Secretary-Treasurer; Sara Culp, Vice President; Alvin Turner, President; and Mr. Sumter, Sponsor.

Spanish Club Learns

This year's Spanish Club was made up of over fifty members from the various Spanish classes. The members participated in the Christmas assembly by portraying a typical Christmas in Mexico. Included in the skit was the breaking of a piñata which was filled with candy and small toys. One of the speakers was Pat Bell who showed slides from Equador and talked on the customs of the people. Another speaker was Miss Roberta Tesar who spoke on the life of the people in Venezuela. Among the various projects planned for the club was the purchasing of tapes of Spanish music by which to learn Spanish dances.

Student Council

The members of the NHS Student Council, led by Sharon Cramer, the first girl president, were among the busiest people in school.

Under the supervision of Bob Williams, the school year passed quickly with a chain of events. The Howdy Party, Christmas Dance, the Boomer Conference Swap-Shop, and the organization of the Willing Workers took us through the first semester.

The elections of Who's Who, and the friendliest Sophomores, Juniors and Seniors, gave everyone something to look forward to. For the sport victories, we had the Victory Flag to fly. Now or Never Week was a great success as everyone took an active part in each day's program. Last but not least, was the Intramural Volley Ball Games, made up of teams representing different organizations.

Mr. Bob Williams ponders a question at one of the many council meetings.

The other officers for the year were: Pat Jarvis, Secretary; Marty Nelson, Vice-President; and Jack Herron, Treasurer.

1963 — BEST

Mary Alice Eurtion makes a motion, while Diane Mead plays "peek-a-boo" with an unseen party.

"These early morning meetings can sure get a guy down," mumbles Frank Olney during one of his rest periods.

"I move we dispense with these pencils marked 'Made in Japan' and print up a new bunch labeled 'Made in NHS by Tigers'," Susan Dunn announces.

"These rude boys," thinks Joyce Anderson, "they won't even give a girl a chair."

Boasting fifty-four members this year, the Future Teachers of America have made a 100% increase in membership. The first Monday of each month was devoted to a business meeting while the third Monday was a programmed meeting. At the beginning of the year, the club heard Dr. William Monahan speak on the value and qualifications of a teacher. A Halloween party was given for the members by the new officers. The impressive installation ceremony was highlighted by talks from Mrs. Gatchel, Sponsor; Rosemary McGee, Past-President, and Mr. B. Roy Daniel. As a money raising project, the members sold cookies in the teachers' lounge. At the end of the year, the club attended the State Convention in Tulsa.

Past President Rosemary McGee installs new officers: Marilyn Gay, President; David Williams, Vice-President; Karen Thompson, Secretary; Ann Adkins, Treasurer; and Carolyn Gay, Historian.

Future Homemakers Serve

Following their goal, "Toward New Horizons," the Future Homemakers of America, under the sponsorship of Mrs. Rolette, have performed many services this year for their school, city and state. At the beginning of the school year, the Sub-District FHA Rally, with delegates from thirteen cities, was held here at Norman. Also during the fall, the members made stuffed animals for the children at the Cerebral Palsy Institute. A Christmas bazaar was held for the school. For Thanksgiving and Christmas, gift-baskets were sent to a needy family. In the spring the Norman Chapter attended the State FHA Rally in Oklahoma City. Just before graduation, the FHA members ate dinner at Dodson's to celebrate a year of service.

"N" Club

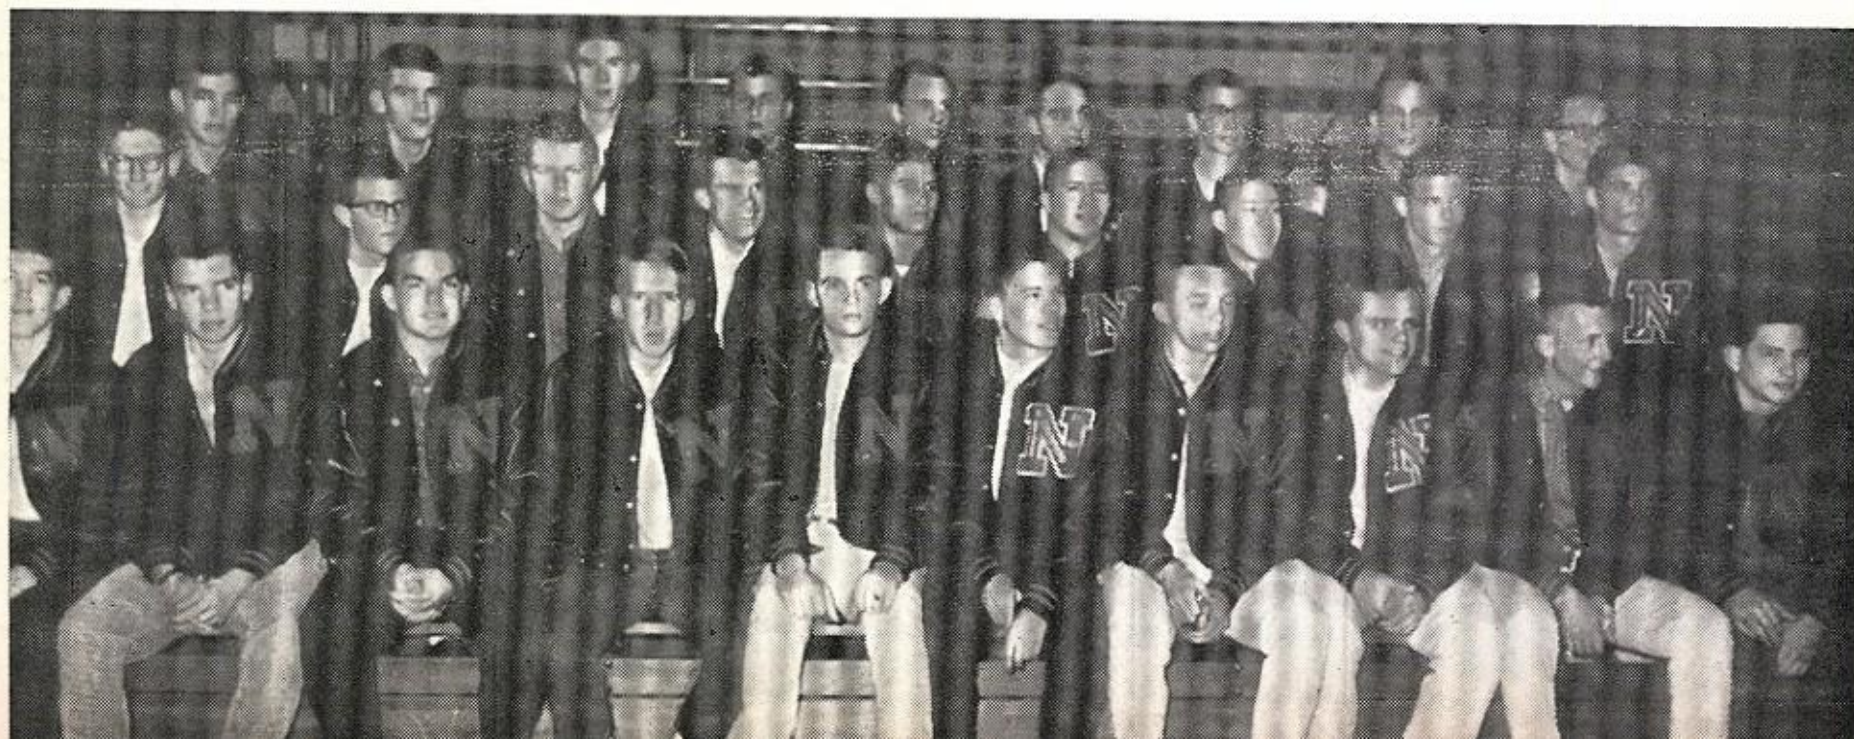

Under the sponsorship of Coach Bert Corr and Coach Wray Littlejohn, the Norman High "N" Club reorganized this year with the usual "lick" initiation.

Promoting good sportsmanship, the "N" Club drew up the "N" Club Creed. Some of the club's projects were cleaning up the school parking lot and selling Tiger stickers. Boasting a ping-pong tournament, an All-School Party was sponsored by the "N" Club in the fall. Our beautiful Christmas tree was erected with slight difficulty by the strong "N" Club athletes. The election and crowning of the beautiful All-Sports Queen and her attendants were carried out by the "N" Club members.

The 1963 Chorus Department has done a fine job all year. In March, the Girls' Glee Club, Boys' Glee Club, Mixed Chorus, and various other ensembles went to OCU for contest. The Girls' Glee Club went back to state contest later in the year. The biggest task of the year was the presentation of the school musical, THE MUSIC MAN. The Departmental officers were elected, and the yearly candy sale was the biggest sale of all. Mrs. White, the Chorus Director, lead the NHS Chorus Department in the prettiest and finest Spring Concert Norman High has ever seen.

FNA ENTHUSIASM

This year, as in the past, the Future Nurses club of NHS has accomplished much. Under the excellent leadership of their four sponsors, the girls have visited such places as: Mercy Hospital, Oklahoma Medical Foundation, and the OU School of Nursing. They have worked at the Cerebral Palsy Center and attended the state rally. The FNA promotes interest in the worthwhile profession of nursing, and we should be exceedingly proud of its members.

"Gee! A Doctor Kildare button!" exclaims Ann Wacker as Mrs. Raleigh presents Mary Katherine Houck with a FNA button.

The sponsors who have guided the FNA through a successful year were: Mrs. Raleigh, Mrs. J. B. Williams, Mrs. T. A. Ragan, and Mrs. W. A. Beauregard.

"Ooh! Look at the corpuscles!" exclaims Elaine Ketcham to Mary Katherine Houck during a demonstration.

Mr. James A. Middleton, director of the band, prepares them for an upcoming contest.

Directed by Mr. James A. Middleton, the Norman High School Band is one of the finest in NHS history. Involved in many activities concerning pep assemblies and half-time performances for the football and basketball games, the band displayed fine talent. The band received a superior rating at the Chickasha Marching Contest, and was awarded the Class AA second place trophy for street marching. Being the only Oklahoma band invited to the Four State Band Clinic, it made a very memorable trip to Texarkana. Twelve members attended All-State Band and All-State Orchestra. For concert playing the band received a superior rating at the Central State Contest at Edmond. Throughout the year the band performed at seven concerts. At the District, the State, and the Tri-State Contests, the band won superior ratings, finishing up a very busy, but enjoyable year.

Artists Indulge In

This year in addition to the usual class art work, the Paint Daubers helped with scenery for "The Music Man," and weekly placed a painting on the bulletin board as the picture of the week. The group entered numerous poster contests: Safety contest, Humane contest, WCTU contest, and the Poppy poster contest. Members also displayed work at the "Young Talent in Oklahoma" show and the Edmond Art Festival. As money-raising projects, they sold cookies, and held an art show and auction. At Christmas the club made decorations for the Tate Nursing Home and sent hand-made Christmas cards to the residents.

In the cellar of NHS Lynda Felton, Linda Moss, Jennifer Ragsdale, Geary Hunt, and Cynthia Calkins turn out another five-five block prints, that is!

James Strickland, Brenda Traeder, Susan Collins, Betsy Siegel, and Kay Kimberling prepare to fire a terra-cotta vase molded by one of the art students, David Meyer.

Dallas Dorsett, Cynthia Smith, Reas Dunn, John Hemphill, Mrs. Fleming, and Charlotte Carter work on mixed media.

Aesthetic Pursuits

The Daubers spent many of their meetings designing and making a tile mosaic school emblem. It was presented to the school at the end of the year and will be placed in an appropriate place in the building.

Because Mrs. Fleming retired from Norman High this year, the officers—David Meyer, president; Dallas Dorsett, vice-president; Susan Pace, secretary; and Tommi Collins, treasurer—representing the club, honored her by presenting the school a scroll plaque. Each year outstanding art students will have their name placed on the scroll entitled the "Fleming Award."

Set your name on the "Fleming Award" plaque next year. You can deserve it. You are a good artist. — Alice Fleming

La Parisienne Has Active Year

Officers, Dallas Dorsett, Treasurer; Lindy Buck, President; Mrs. Bell, Sponsor; Mary Ann Reed, Secretary; and Laurie Steinmeyer, Vice-President, study Le Figaro, bought by the club for the French classes. Not pictured are Mrs. Wade, Sponsor; and Jonathan Thayer, Sergeant-at-arms.

La Parisienne, under the sponsorships of Mrs. Robert Bell and Mrs. Charles Wade has striven to give its members a better understanding of the language and customs of France. At the beginning of the year the annual French banquet was held and a University professor spoke. At Christmas the club had a caroling party. French club carolers took part in the Christmas assembly and also presented a skit on Christmas customs in France.

Various programs during the year included slides shown by a student taken during his trip through France and a talk given by a University student. To round out the year the French Club members attended the spring picnic, and a French dictionary was given to the outstanding graduating senior La Parisienne member.

Latin Club Turns Thespian

Under the sponsorship of Miss McSpadden the Latin Club was reorganized this year as a Chapter of the Junior Classical League. Latin Club carolers took part in the Christmas assembly with Jim Hoover as narrator. Various meeting programs included a discussion of Roman politics and the production of "Red Riding Hood" in Latin. In the spring, several members attended the State Junior Classical League Convention at O.U. To complete the year a Roman banquet was held with the members attending in Roman costumes. 1963 has set a challenge for future groups.

The Distributive Education Class, under the guidance of Mr. Hurshel Antwine, enables a student to receive credit toward graduation and still hold a job. The DE students elected Linda Keller to represent Norman in the State DE Queen contest held in connection with the DECA Conference in Oklahoma City. At this conference Dorothy LaRue, a NHS student, was elected as a state officer. Another activity undertaken by the DE Club was an employer-employee banquet held in April.

"I wonder if this thing will blow up," ponders Kenny Johnston as he delivers a package in the course of his work.

Ring up sales and making change is a small but necessary part of Dorothy Johnson's job.

SPORTS

The fans watch with intense interest as Rick Kersey puts the ball in for another two points in one of the many Tiger victories.

"Run Diddley Daddy, there's a Tiger on your tail!" Dick Wilburn, David Robinson, Bob Ritz and Jerry Wilson form a solid wall as they close in on their prey.

Touchdown Coming Up—Quarterback Gary King turns the corner and sets out on a 47 yard sprint for the first score in the 14-0 victory over Duncan.

TIGERS TACKLE

Rising above expectations, the Norman High School football team made a very impressive record for the 1962 season. The Norman Tigers were defeated by only Lawton 16-6, and Enid 12-8. This gave the Tigers a 9-2 record.

Under the expert coaching of Gene Corrotto, Homer Simmons, Wray Littlejohn, Dale Ernst, and Bert Corr, the fighting Bengals thrilled the Norman fans with walloping scores such as the 51-0 win over Idabel, the 66-0 slaughter over Shawnee, and the 46-6 victory over Chickasha.

Because of the outstanding team backing, quarterback Gary King was able to break five school records including those for rushing, scoring, and total yards gained. For his fine work, Gary was named the outstanding back in the Boomer Conference. From the line, Bobby Ritz earned a berth on the All-Boomer Conference first team. Many of our other players received recognition for their fine play in the Boomer Conference.

Once again that Tiger spirit has remained untamable.

Discussing the reason for the many hours of practice and the many exciting games, are coaches Bert Corr, Dale Ernst, Wray Littlejohn and Homer Simmons.

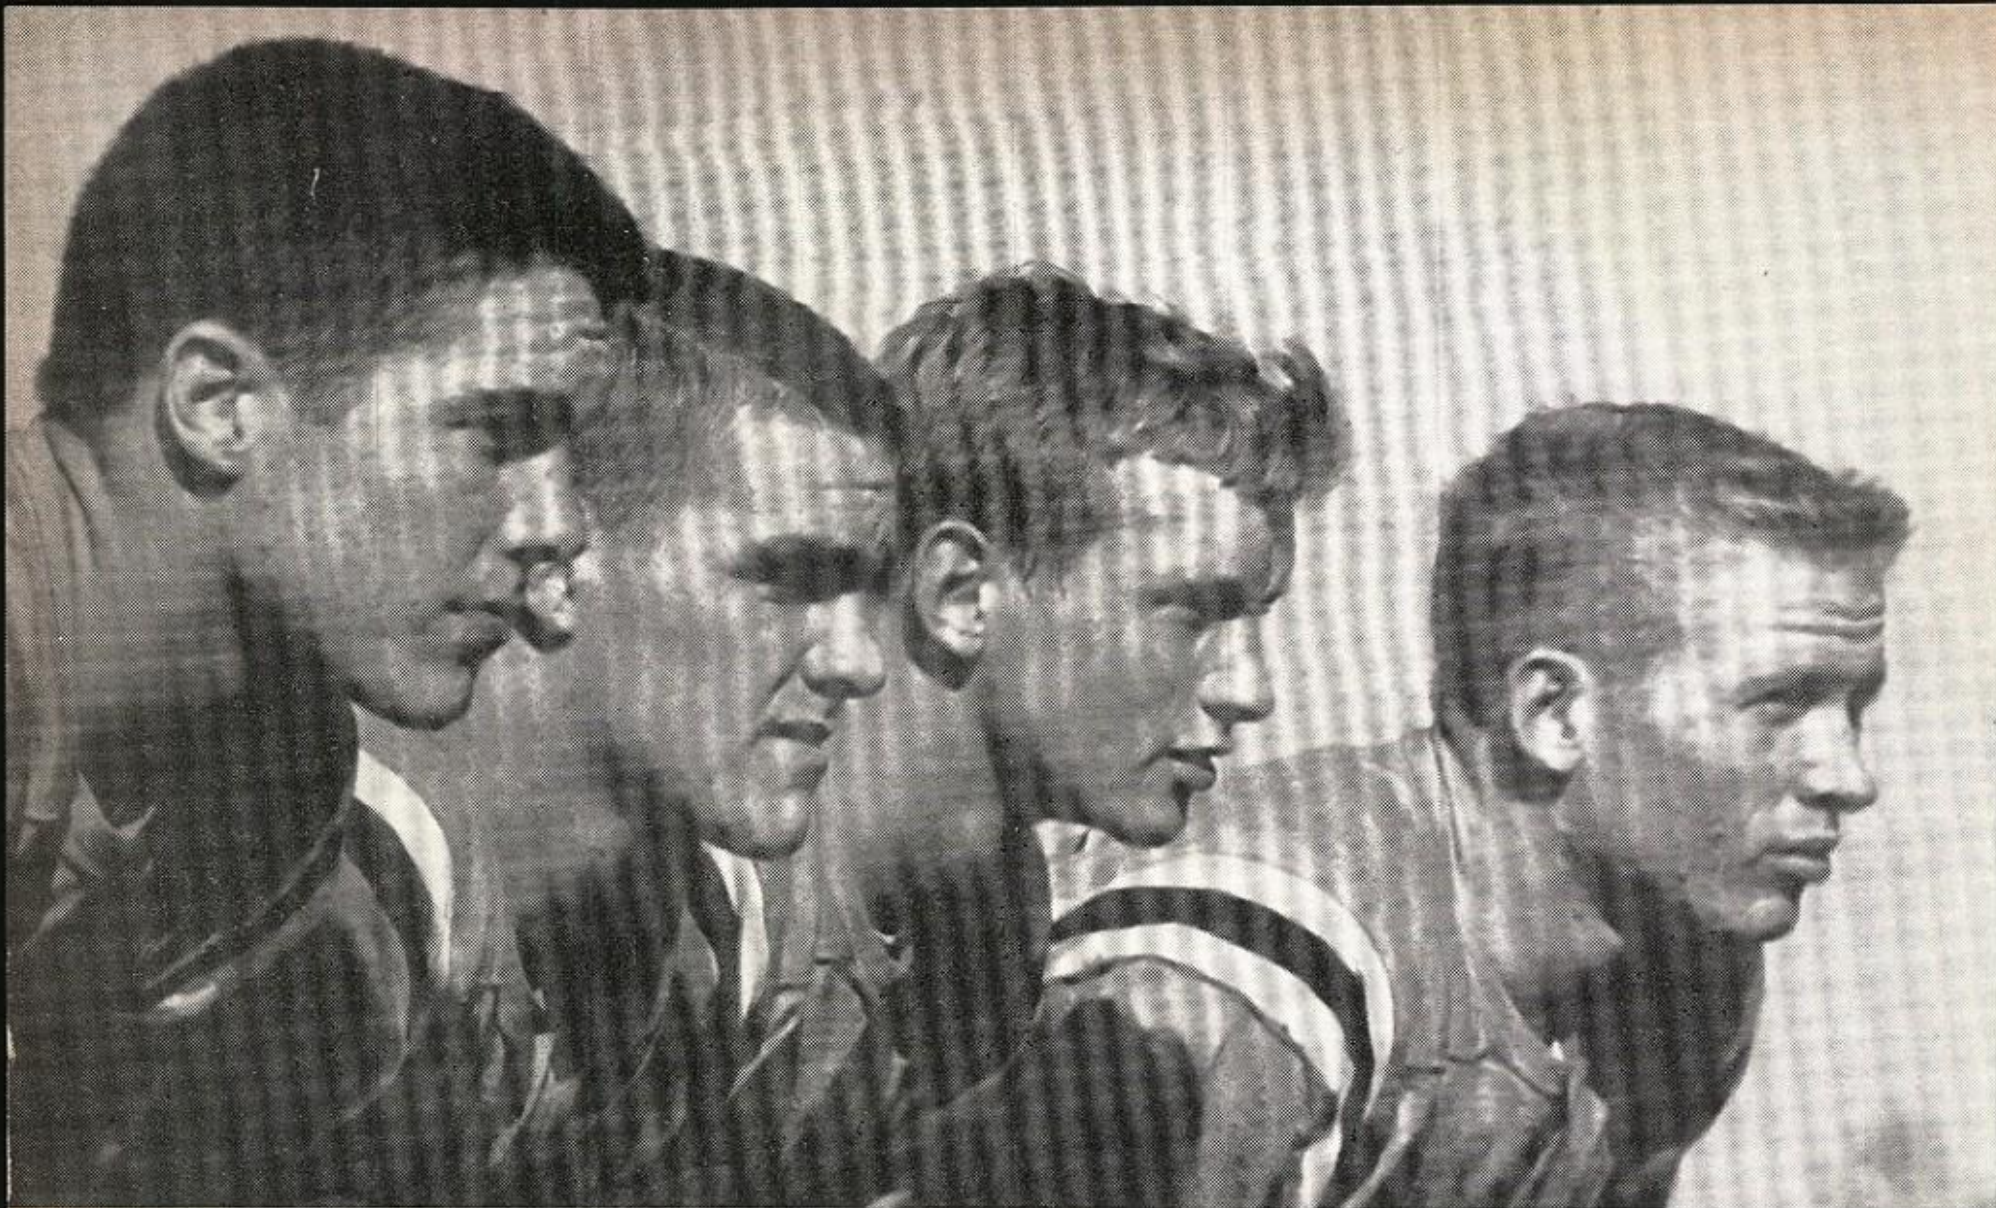

Another Demon Bites The Dust—The Tigers were always in the right place at the right time. Gregg Huff and Dick Wilburn made the tackle.

TOUGH TEAMS

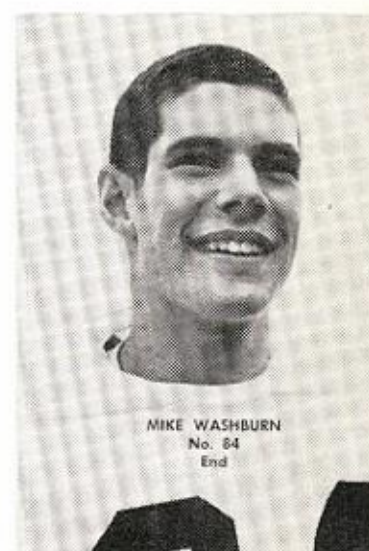

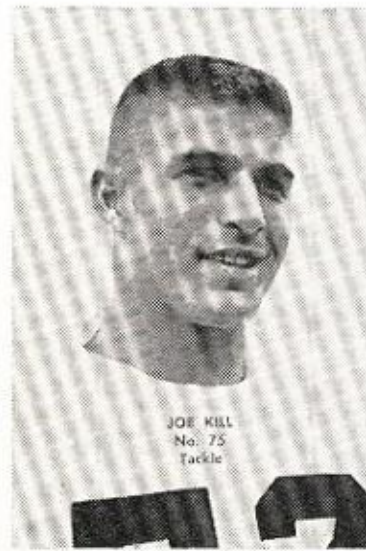

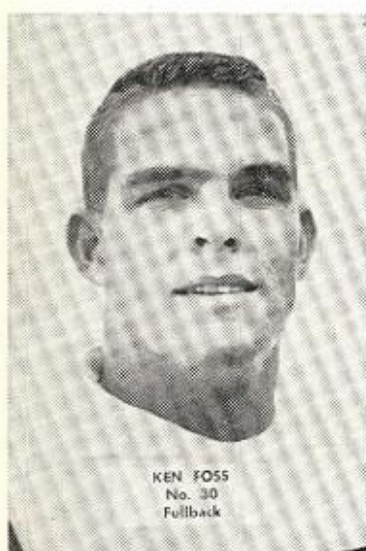

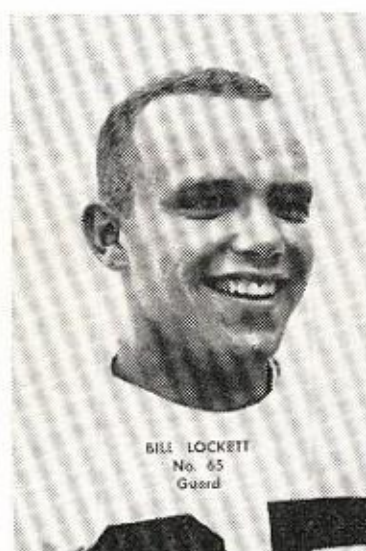

Leaders All—The three captains for the 1962 season were Bob by Ritz, Kenny Foss, and Gary King. They are pictured as they confer with coach Gene Corrotto.

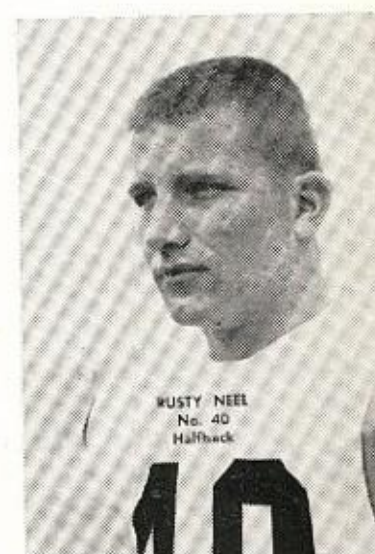

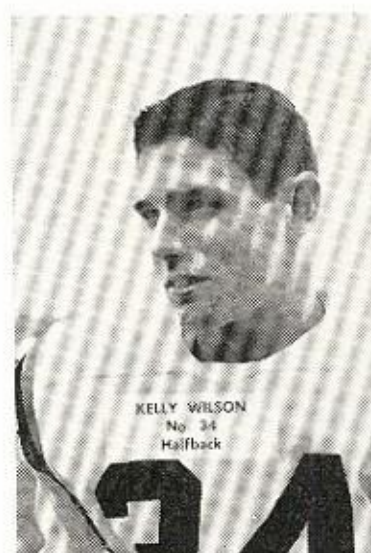

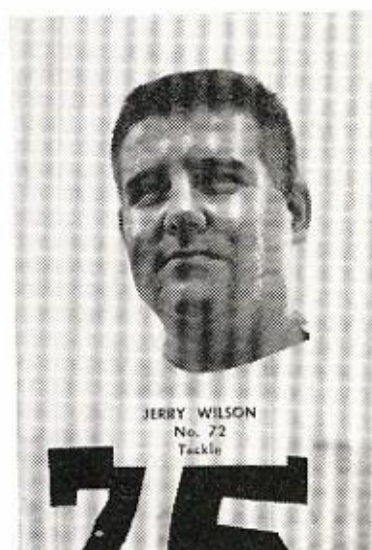

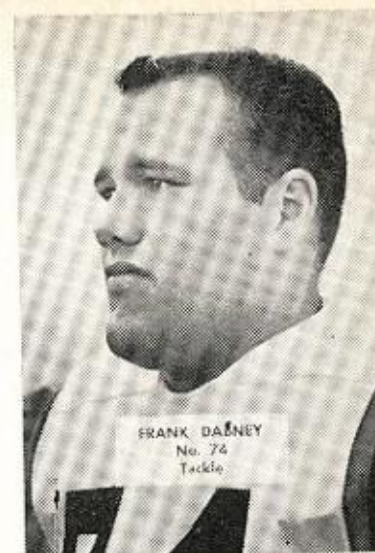

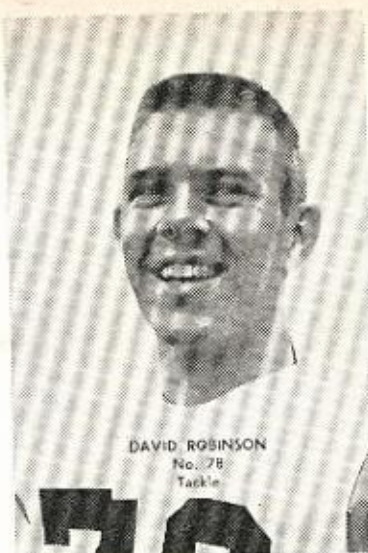

Determination Undeterred—The starting backfield made up of John Hemphill, Ken Foss, Quentin Remy, and Gary King, provided many thrilling moments for the Norman fans during each of the exciting games of this season.

Tiger Spirit Untamable

Five Putnam City Pirates fail to stop quarterback Gary King as he crashes through for a touchdown. Mike Washburn (84) stands ready to help.

The Tiger baseball team has rebuilt itself into one of the best teams Norman has ever had. Some of the basketball boys came out after the first three games and boosted team spirit and quality. There has been much speed on the bases as is shown in one instance by Wayne Johnson's stealing three bases in one game against Midwest City. An example of the team's good hitting game was a grand slam home run in a Midwest City game. Since there are quite a few sophomores on the team this year, the returning team next year will be mostly "old hands" and should be a real winner.

Baseball Team Rebuilds

Tiger On Attack—Star guard Jack Herron displays some of the fine ball handling that placed him on the All-State Roster.

FREEZE!! The Norman Tigers look frozen here; but in real life it was the Tigers who put the cold chill on their opponents all season long.

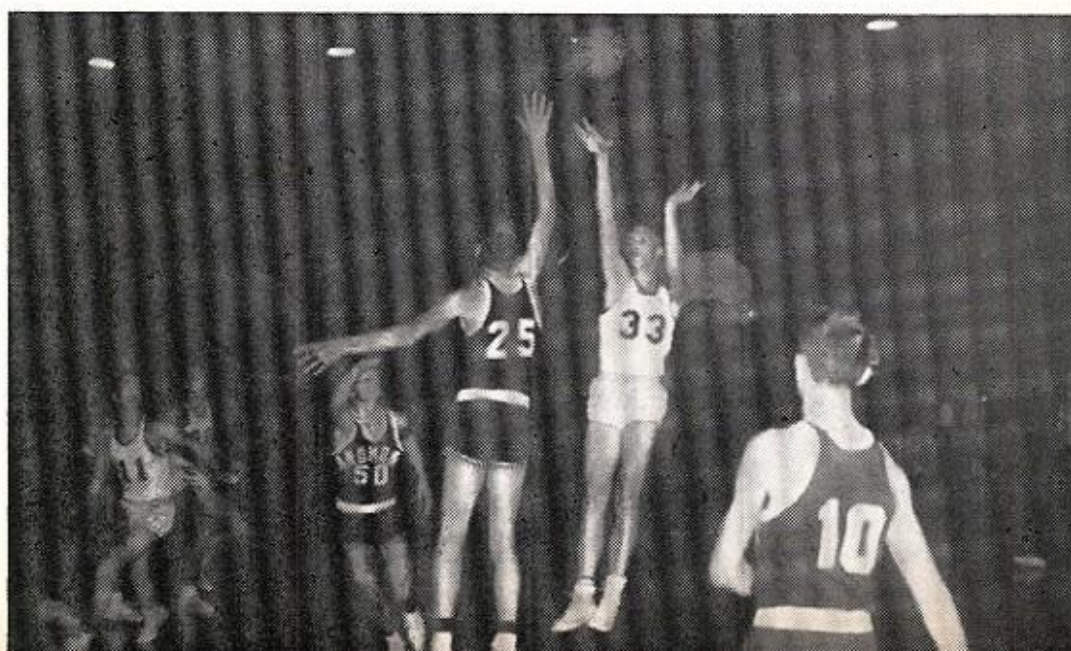

This year, for the fourth time, Coach Chet Bryan has led his team to the highest peak, the AA State Championship.

The 1963 team lived up to all pre-season predictions that they would be No. 1. The Tigers have also made a name for themselves with their fine record of 22-1 and the outstanding shooting average which placed them at the head of all scorers. Their only loss was to Shawnee by the narrow margin of 60-58.

Norman placed three men on the Boomer Conference All-Star Team. They were Jack Herron, Steve Taylor, and Ricky Kersey. Kersey made his second appearance on the Boomer Roster this year. Taylor and Herron also captured berths on the Oklahoma All-State Team.

Norman High will always remember this championship team with pride.

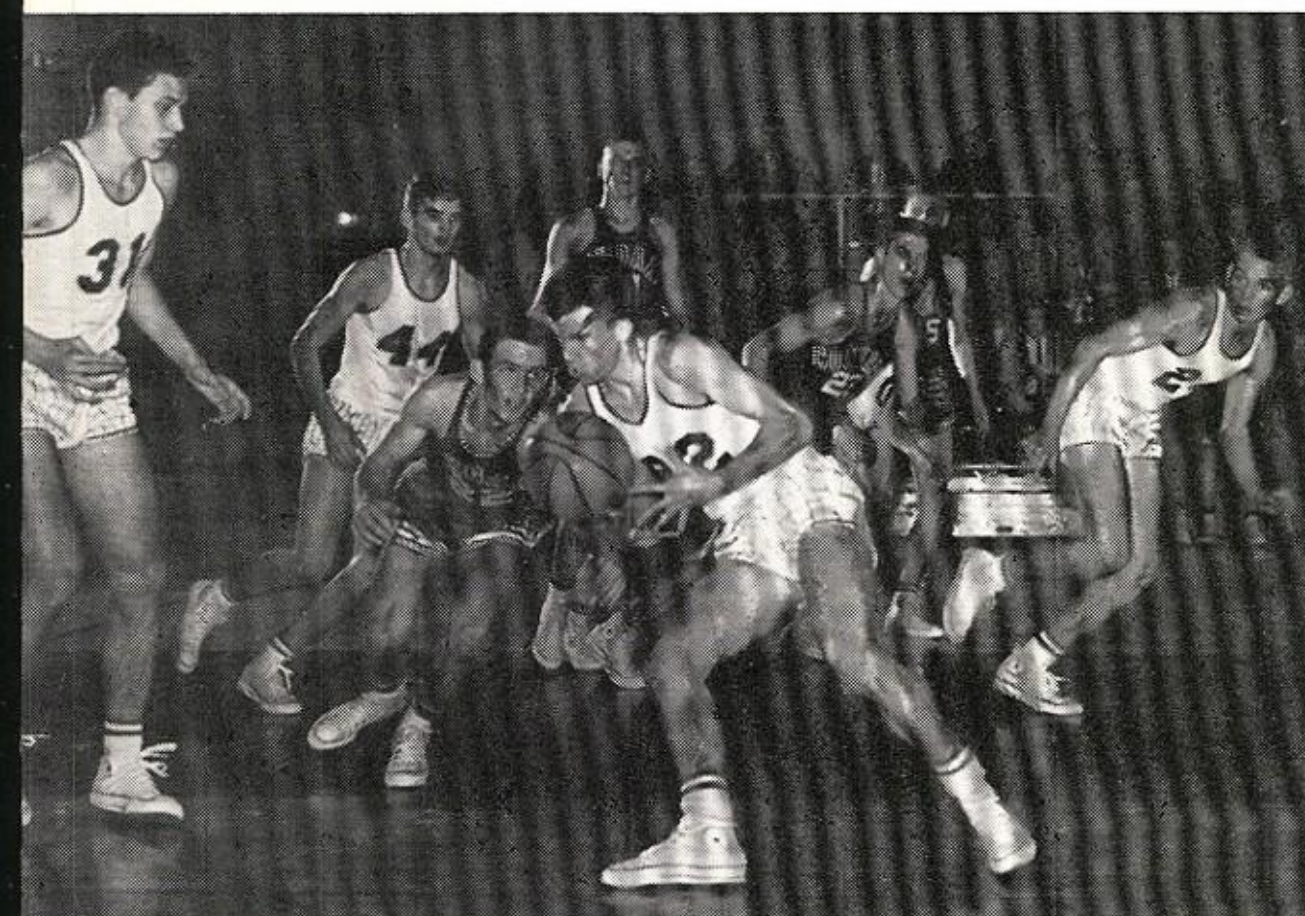

Annie Annie Over?—No, its Sandy McGee as he jumps against a rival from Ardmore.

The 1963 State Champs are: First row: Brent Harris, Gary King, Basil Hurry, Leslie Fertig, The Trophy, Steve Taylor. Second row: Coach Bryan, Gene Bauman, Marvin Daniels, Terry Fischer, Bob Clark, Sandy McGee, Jack Herron and Rick Kersey.

A familiar sight to all Norman fans throughout the championship '63 season, the jumps started the Tigers at each game.

Team Work Is Winning Ticket

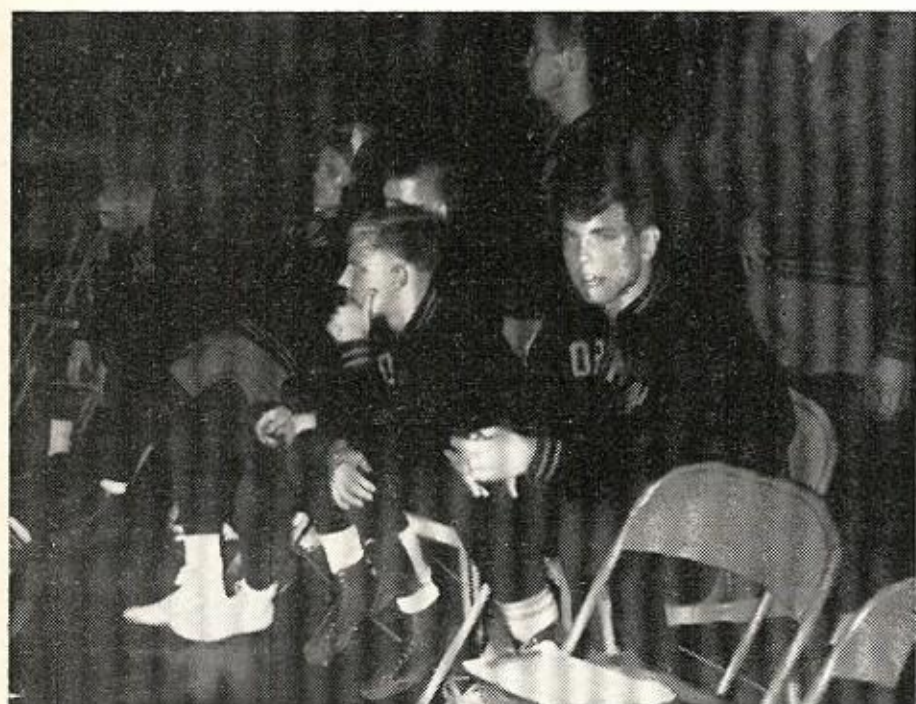

Probably the most improved player of this season, Terry Fischer was an asset to our great team all year. He is being covered by Rick Kersey and Steve Taylor.

The future backbone of the Norman basketball team, the "B" team displayed their fine ability throughout the year. Here Cal Hawkins, Ray Maggard, and Johnny Campbell play defensive ball.

Coach Corr and Captain Cox congratulate Bud McDaniel for a job well done.

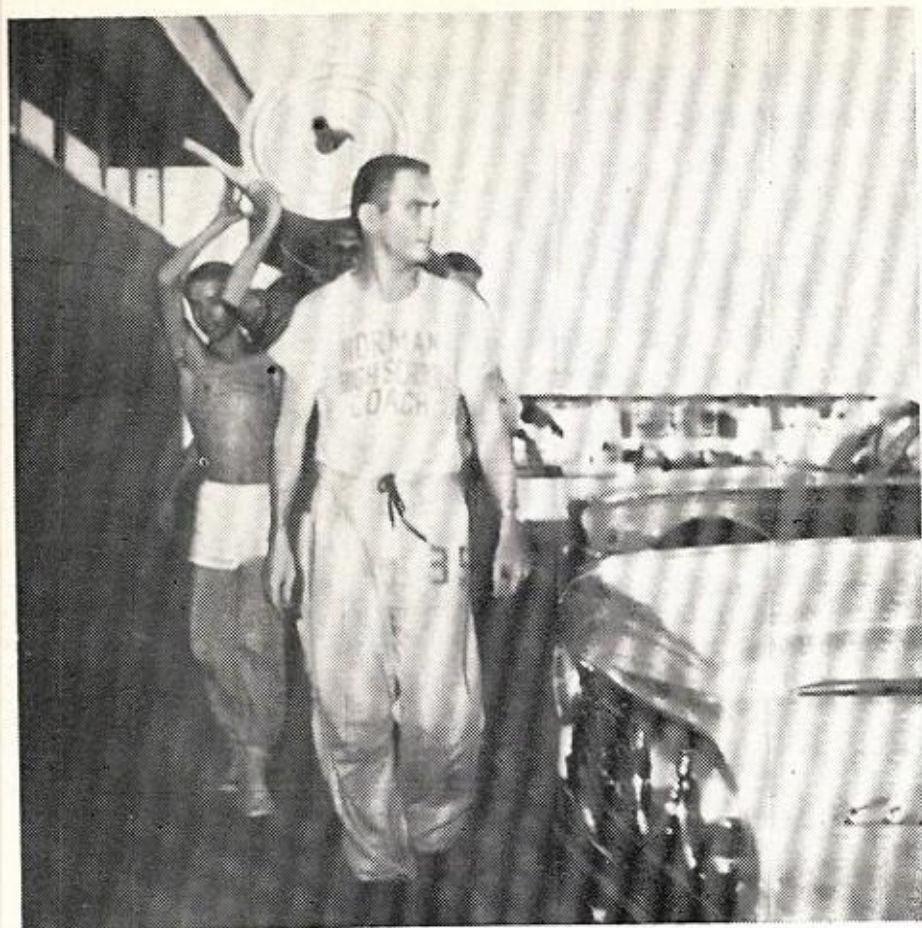

Some of the wrestling boys await their matches with mixed emotions.

This season has been the best season for wrestling in school history. The team had a 7 wins-3 losses record and won two trophies. They were champions at the Duncan tournament and placed third at Midwest City. The team placed fifth at the Geary tournament, which was the toughest tournament the team wrestled in this year. A total of twenty-seven medals were won, four of them by Tommy Gowens. Although plagued by injury and sickness, the team had two boys place at State, Bob Prickett and Dickey Dilks, the first Norman boys ever to do so. The captain and high-point man this year was Mike Cox, but he was injured and was not able to go to State. Even though the team will lose five seniors this year, with the rest of the team returning plus those coming up from the junior highs, our next year's team promises to be even better than this year's.

Tennis

Swimming

Golf

Interest in golf was renewed at Norman High School this year. The team, coached by Mr. Ansel Young, played several matches with other state schools. It appears that golf will be an increasingly popular sport next year. This year's team consisted of: Tom Tonkins, Chuck Bell, Steve Taylor, Joe Flippo, Dean Craven, Charles Jernigan, and Alvin Turner.

Jim Wells gets down into starting position as he would in a race.

Coach Williams, Mike Washburn, and Ken Farris discuss the way they will win the next Track meet.

Track Has Great Year

Quentin Remy shows his great skill in leaping hurdles, the event which won him high honors throughout the state.

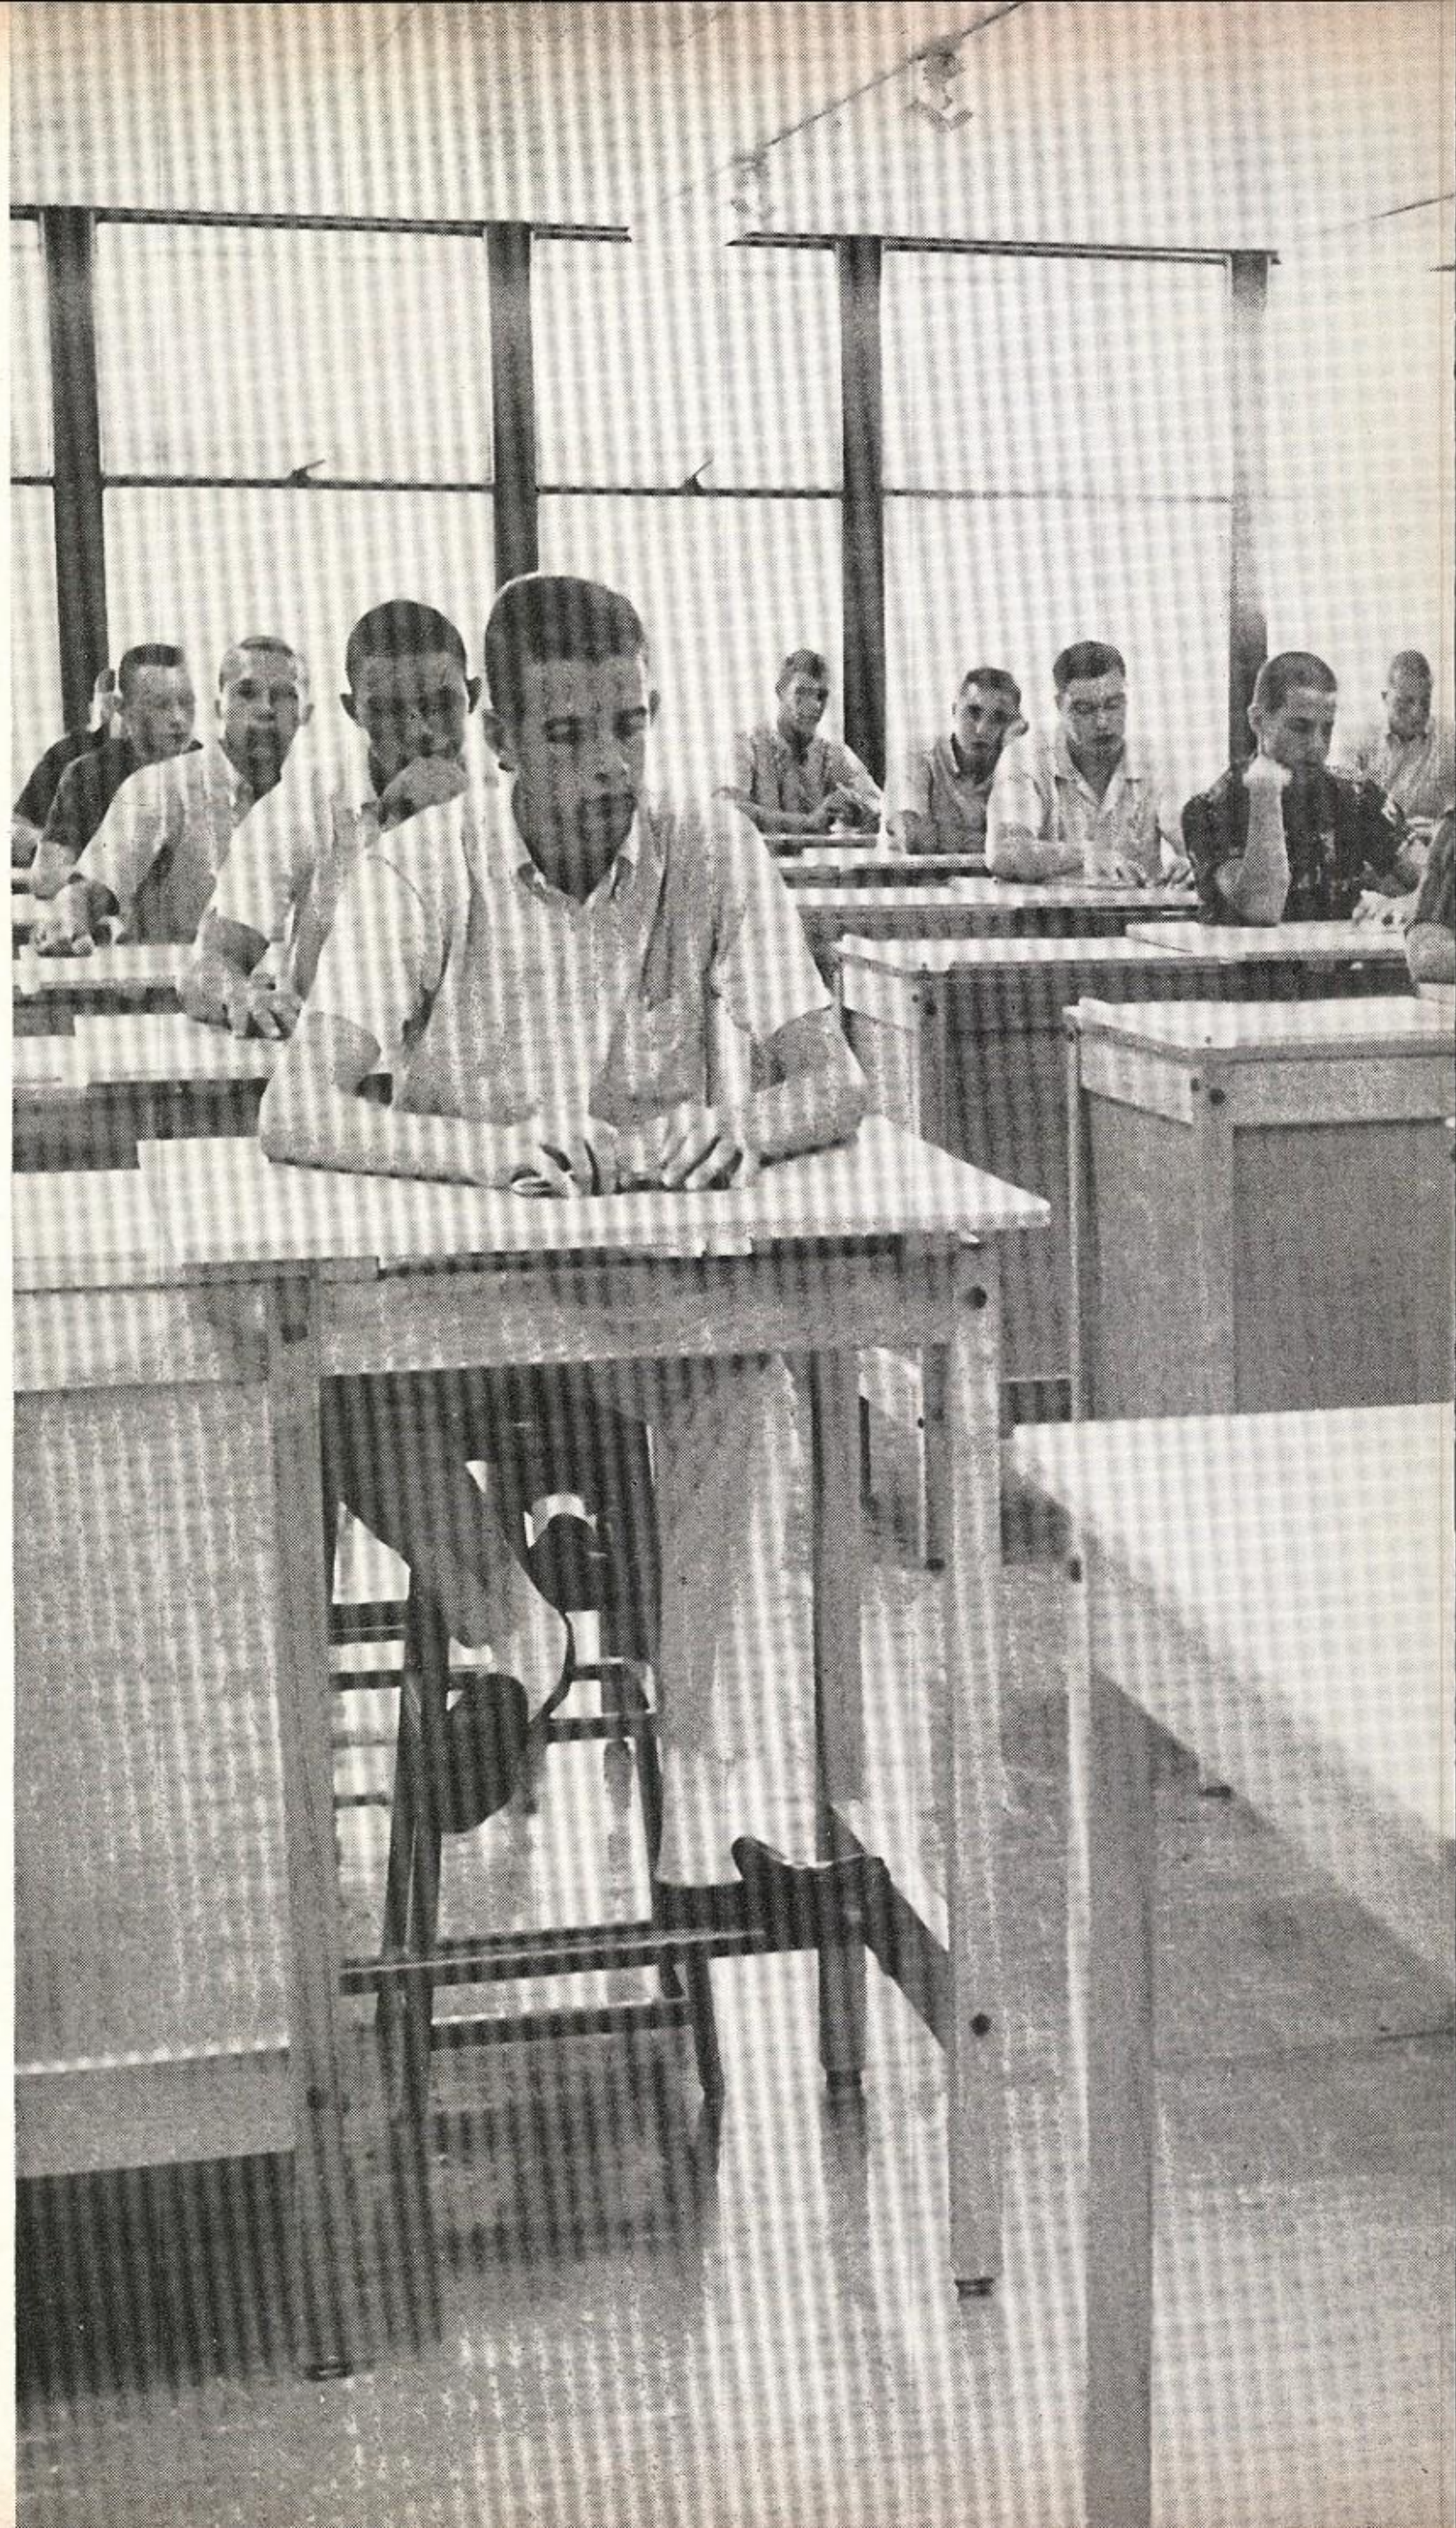

The Track team has been great this year and an improvement over last year. Since Coach Williams came here last year, he has changed the Track team from a small group of unorganized boys into one of the best teams in the state with more than fifty boys out for it. The team won the Norman Invitational and received a trophy for it, and it came in third at the Lawton Invitational. One of the best meets of the year was the one at Ft. Worth, in which almost all the teams in the Southwest participated. The team also beat Capitol Hill in a dual meet there. The Track team got much better as the year progressed and showed great promise for years to come. Along with this improvement is a great popularity in the sport.

Norman runner Bill Reese sprints across the finish line.

CLASSES

The first day of a new school year marks a mile post for both the juniors and the seniors in Mr. Powell's mechanical drawing class.

Leading the 1963 Senior Class is President Percy Granger.

SENIORS

Our senior year, a year of achievement, scholarship, and fulfillment, will long be remembered. Led by our president Percy Granger, and officers Steve Taylor and Valli Powell, we have been able to work together to achieve our highest goals. Outstanding seniors formed the backbone of our Tiger football and basketball teams, and many of the major and supporting roles were held by seniors in the production of "The Music Man." The great talent of our senior class was also exhibited in the two senior assemblies. High honors were earned by many graduates for their achievements in leadership, scholarship, and character. The beautiful Junior-Senior Prom and exciting Graduation Exercises added to make our Senior Year the most memorable of our lives.

Other '63 Senior Class officers are Steve Taylor, Vice-President; and Valli Powell, Secretary-Treasurer.

A great help to the Senior Class this year were sponsors: Mr. Walter Warren, Mrs. H. C. Davis, Mr. Bill King, Mrs. Alice Fleming, Mrs. Robert E. DeKinder, Mr. Dale Ernst, and Mr. Bill Griffin.

As seniors frantically rush to buy refreshments at the Junior Surprise Party, Bill Lockett deftly slips cookies up his sleeve.

The President of the 1963 Junior Class was Larry Harral.

The Junior Class officers for the 1963 school year were: Maria Kay Gill, Secretary-Treasurer; and Sara Culp, Vice-President.

JUNIORS

Our Junior year has been an active and exciting one. We worked very hard on our money raising projects: the Junior Surprise Party, the bake sales, and our participation in the school musical. We cheered our sports stars on to many victories. The year was climaxed with our unforgettable Junior-Senior Prom. The class officers: Larry Harral, president; Sara Culp, vice-president; and Maria Kay Gill, secretary-treasurer; performed a remarkable job and helped create that certain thing called "class pride" among us. We are looking forward to our senior year, and back on that joyous Sophomore year, but our Junior year will always be one we will never forget.

SOPHOMORES

The Sophomores of 1963, the largest of the three classes, have rocked NHS with their enthusiasm. They have shown the vitality that is typical of all Norman Tigers as they participated in the various activities of their new school. The Sophomore Class has proven its loyalty to Norman High by living up to the goals and traditions found in its halls. It can be plainly seen as the Class of '65 approaches the leader's position in NHS that the Tiger banner will remain aloft.

The Sophomore Class sponsors, Mrs. Bailey, Mr. Sawyer, Mrs. Braithwaite, Mr. Upchurch and Mrs. Brandt were always ready to help.

Cindy Bowlby, Vice-President, and Linda Stafford, Secretary-Treasurer, worked diligently for their class.

GRADUATION

Never To Be Relived—

But Never To Be Forgotten

As we walk the halls of Norman,
Greet our friends from day to day,
We add to mem'ry's scene
To keep when we go away.

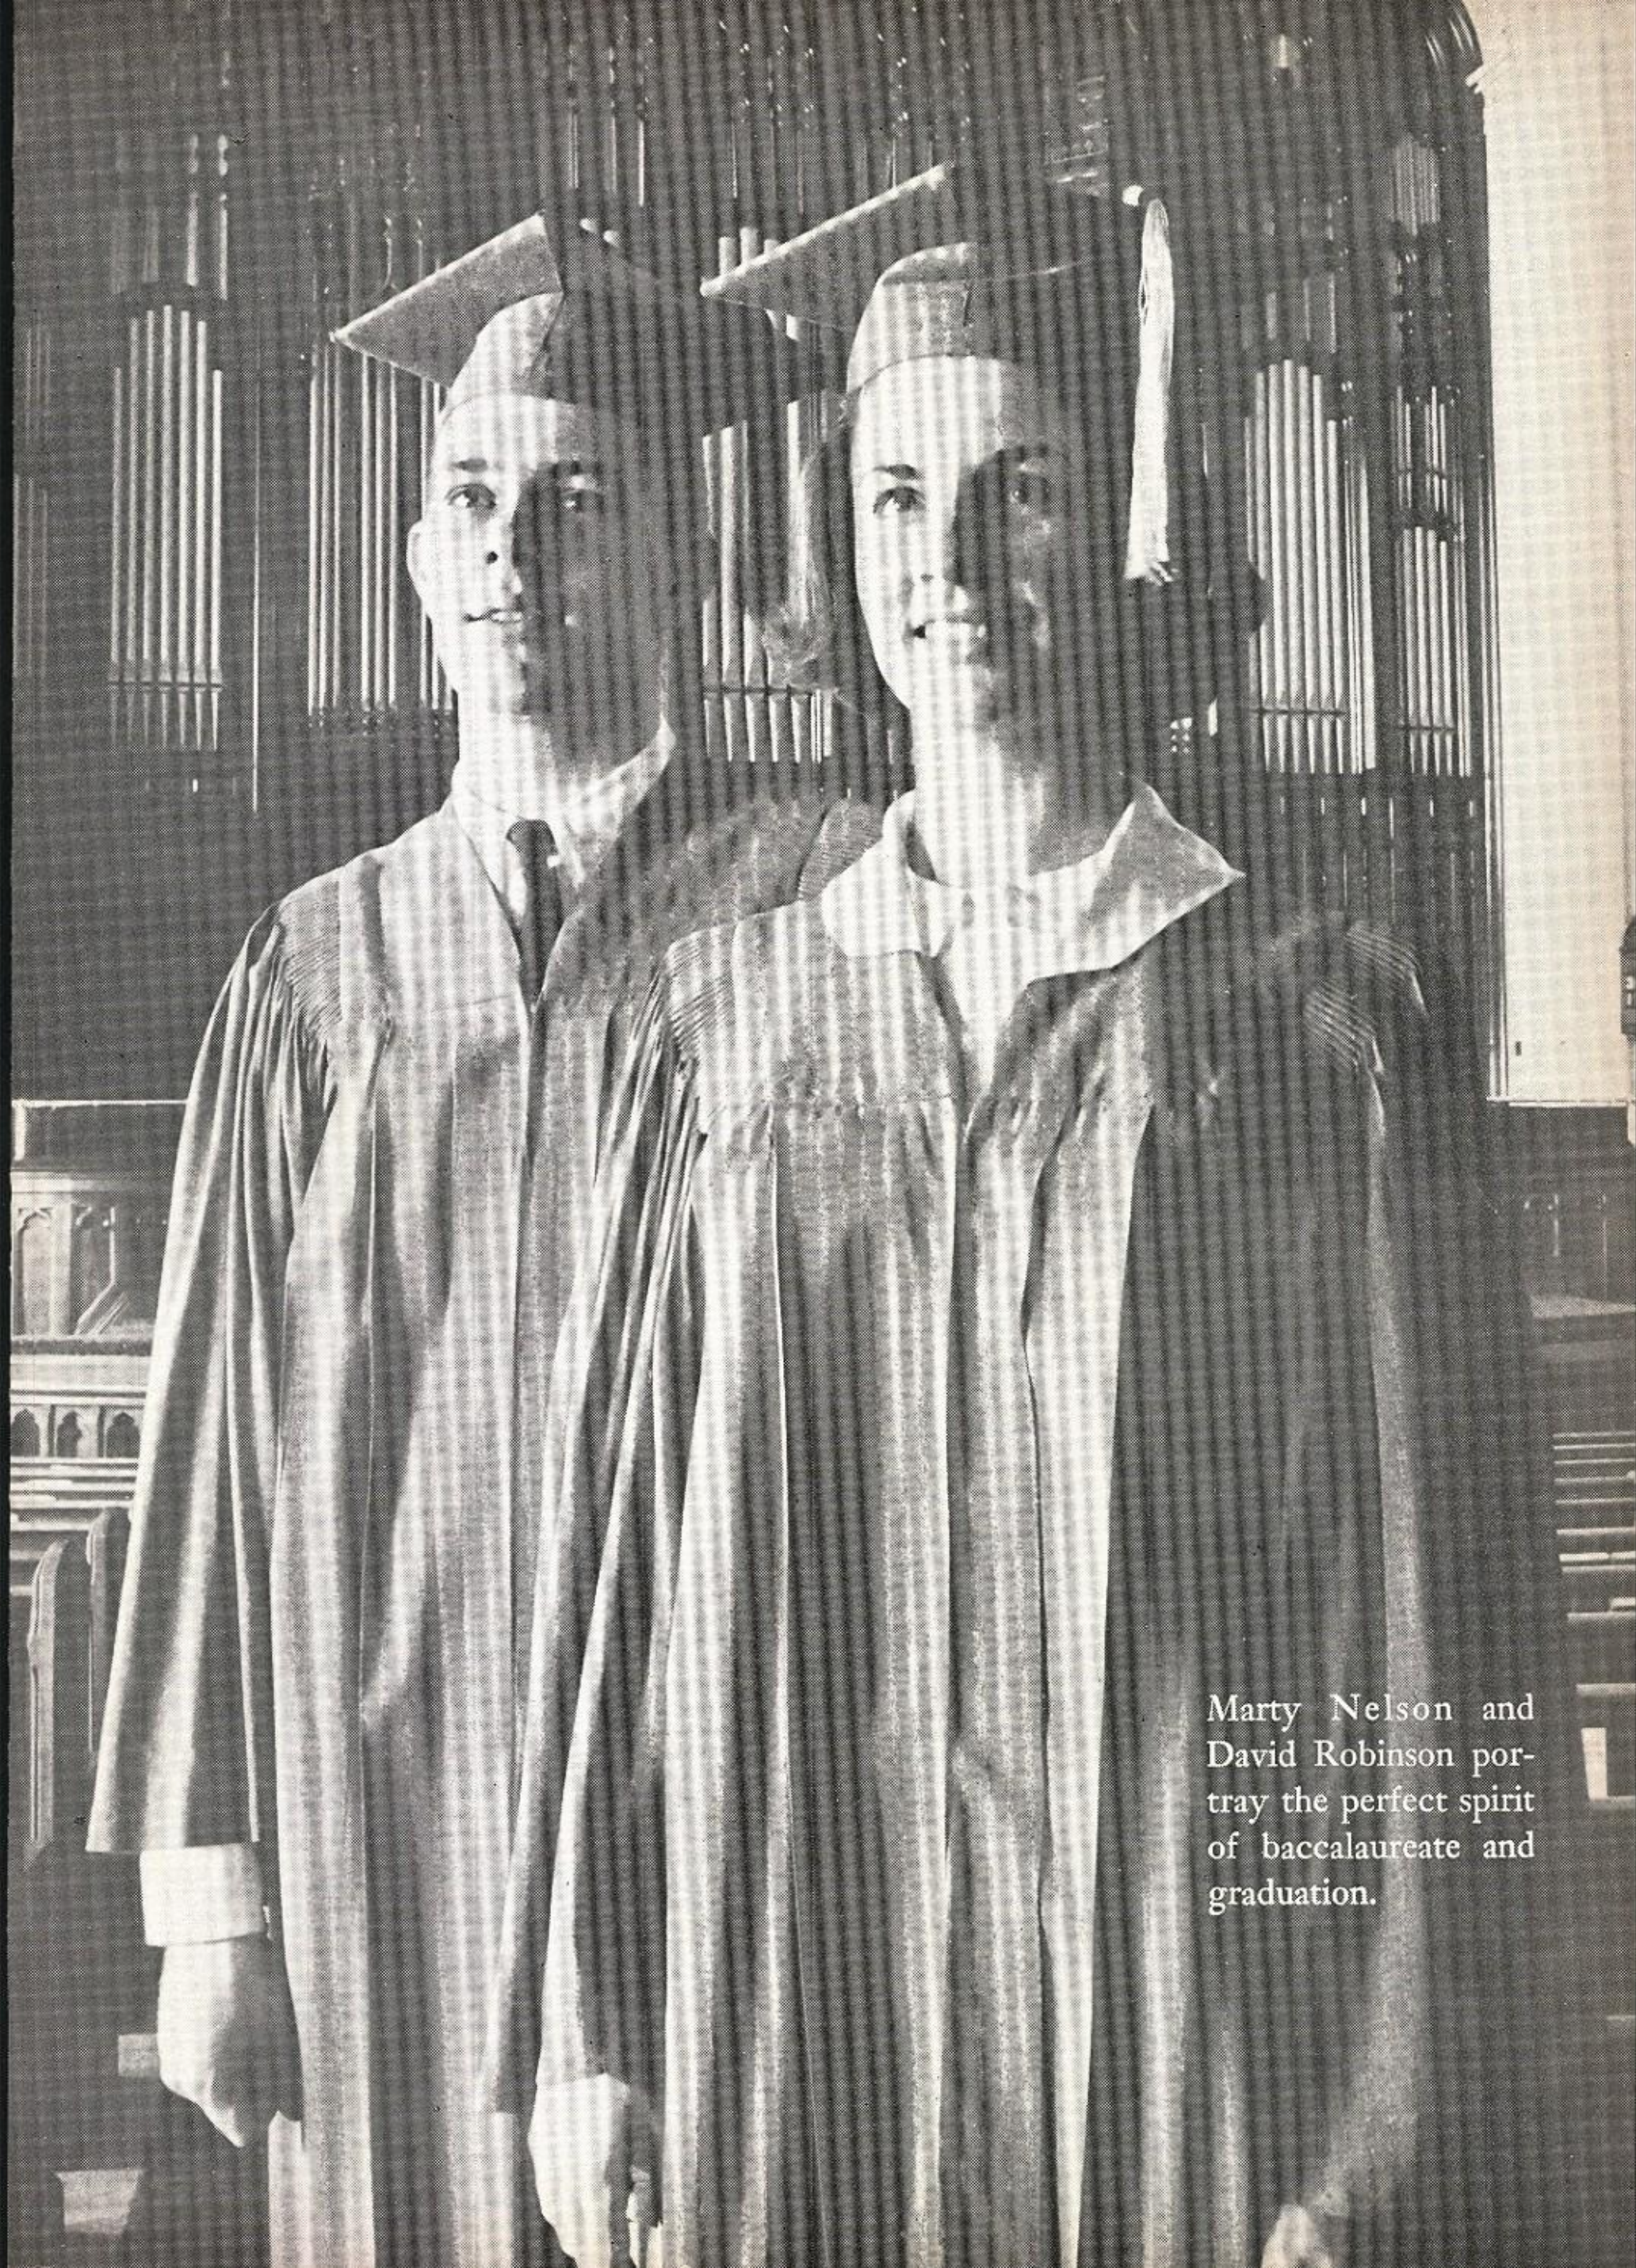

As we see the shining faces,
As the voices come and go,
We know we shall remember,
In the soft afterglow.

One day, half sad, we'll leave;
"Good-bye," the voices grieve.
"Each bright tomorrow turns to yesterday."

"Good-bye." Some tears may start.
Yet living in each heart
Are memories so bright and dear and gay.

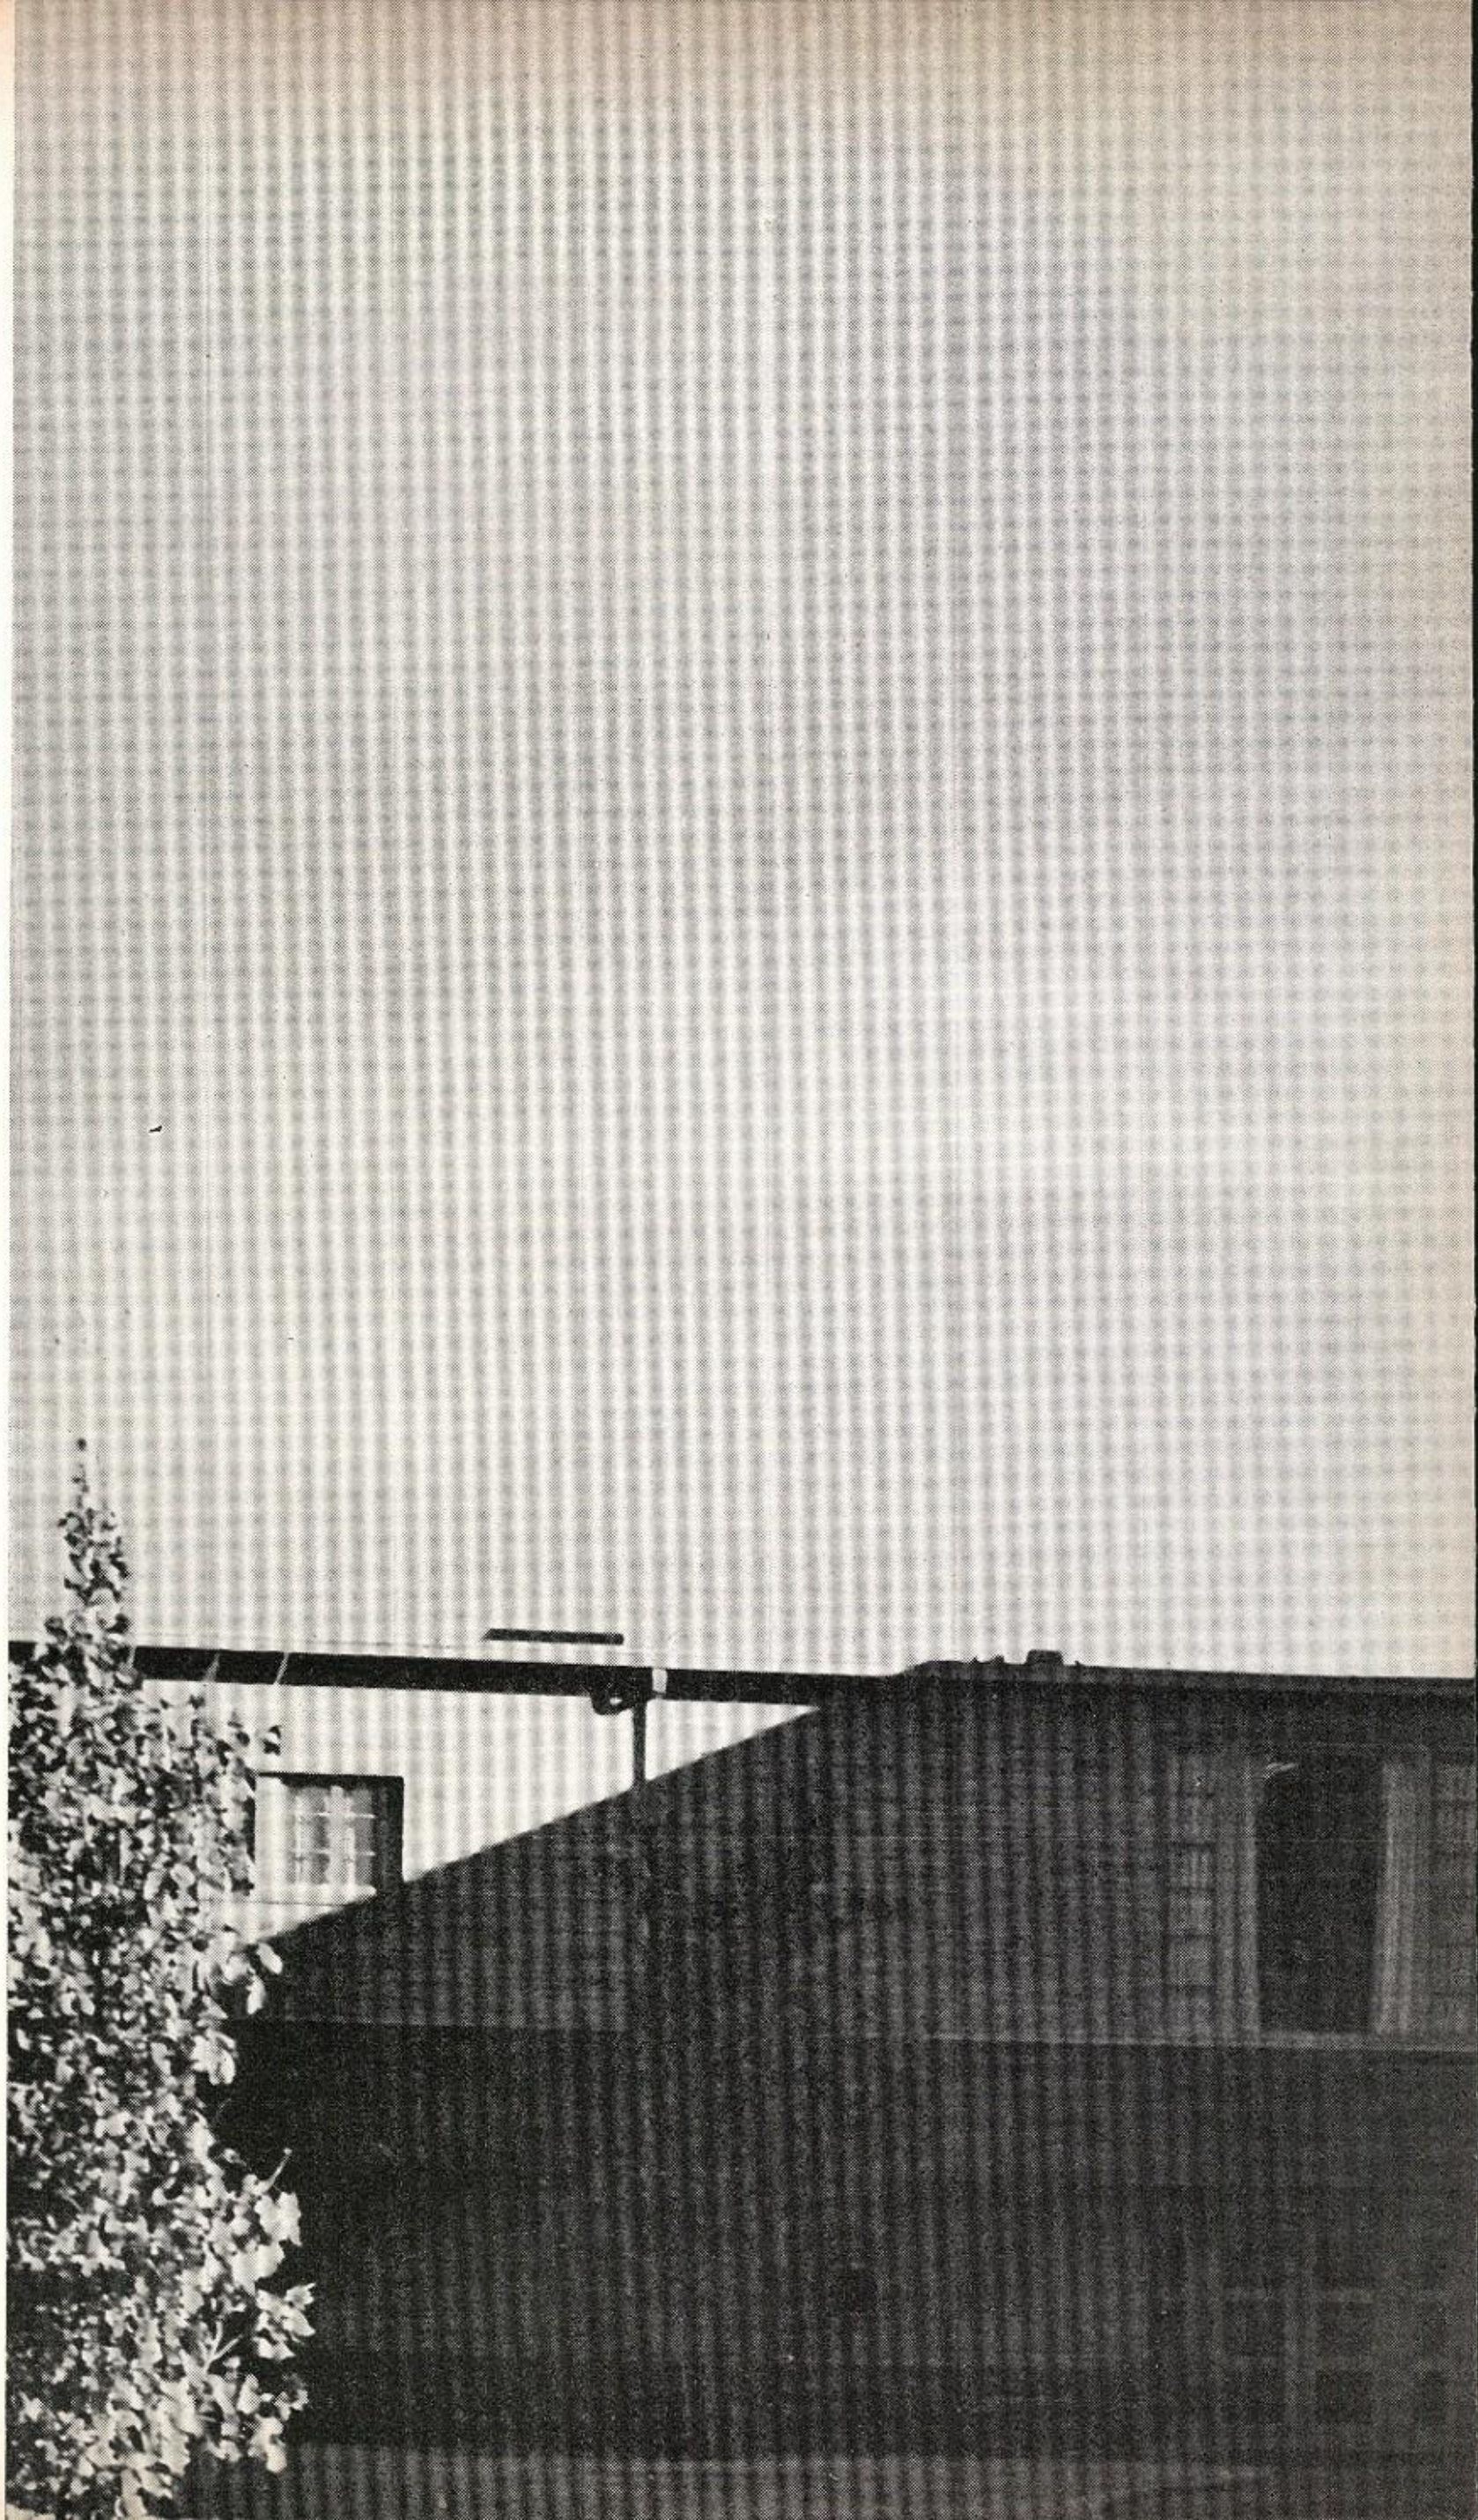

Come walk again in Norman
With friends still fond and true.
For in the halls of Norman
All the mem'ries mean you.

—Miss Lucille Searcy

Marty Nelson and David Robinson portray the perfect spirit of baccalaureate and graduation.
